CORPORATE FINANCE

Course Web Page: <http://finance.wharton.upenn.edu/~acmack>

Course Description:

The purpose of this course is to introduce techniques of financial analysis, with emphasis on topics in the corporate finance area. The concepts developed in Finance 100 form the foundation for all elective finance courses. The main topics covered include (1) the time value of money and the net present value rule; (2) valuation of bonds and stocks; (3) principles of capital budgeting; (4) uncertainty and the tradeoff between risk and return; (5) corporate financing and dividend policy decisions; and (6) capital budgeting decisions under uncertainty.

Course Materials:

Required:

S. A. Ross, R. W. Westerfield and J. F. Jaffe, Corporate Finance, 8th Edition, McGraw-Hill Irwin, 2008. (Referred to as RWJ in course outline.)

Sample exams with solutions (available online and as a bulk pack from Wharton Reprographics).

A scientific or business calculator. (It will be necessary for your calculator to have a x^y function.)

Optional:

Smolira, J., Solutions Manual to accompany Corporate Finance (8th edition), McGraw-Hill Irwin, 2008. (This solutions manual is optional but strongly recommended. It is available in a package with the textbook at the bookstore.)

R. A. Brealey, S. C. Myers, and F. Allen, Principles of Corporate Finance, 9th Edition, McGraw-Hill Irwin, 2008. (Referred to as BMA in course outline.)

S. A. Ross, R. W. Westerfield, J. F. Jaffe, and B. D. Jordan, Corporate Finance: Core Principles and Applications, McGraw-Hill Irwin, 2007. (This text is basically an abbreviated version of the required textbook.)

Evaluation:

The course grade will be based on two midterm exams, a final exam, and several assignments (to be handed in). The weightings are:

Maximum of Midterm I and Midterm II	10%
Midterm Exam II	35%
Final Exam	45%
Assignments	10%

The first midterm exam is not optional. Failure to take this exam will result in a score of zero for the 10% allocated to the maximum of midterms I and II.

Schedule of Exams:

Midterm Exam I	Monday, October 6, 6:00 pm to 7:30 pm
Midterm Exam II	Wednesday, November 5, 6:00 pm to 8:00 pm
Final Exam	Friday, December 12, 6:00 pm to 8:00 pm

Please note that there will not be any make-up exams except as required by university policy.

Regrading Policy:

All regrade requests must be made in writing within one week of the day the exams are returned. Any exam submitted for regrading of a question can be subjected to a complete regrading.

Office Hours:

My weekly scheduled office hours will be on Tuesdays from 3:45 to 5:00 unless advised otherwise.

The course teaching assistants will also have office hours scheduled throughout the week. Their schedule will be posted on the course web page.
